COBONER'S INQUEST .- Magistra'e KANAPAUX WAS called upon yesterday to hold an inquest over the body of Gny Inglis (colored), aged 75 years, on the premises of ——, Berresford street. The verdict of the jury was that he came to his death from old age and general debility.

INTERESTING CEBEMONY.—By virtue of a special dispensation from the R. W. Grand Master, a public installation of the officers of Schiller Lodge. No. 30, I. O. O. F., took place last evening. As a public display of this character is very rare, and the interior of the hall known only to the initiated, a large audience availed themselves of the opportunity, and the spacious auditorium was soon filled. The installation was performed by R. W. Grand Master R. S. Duryes, assisted by the Grand Lodge, and the expression, was both novel and im-Grand Master R. S. THE STRIKE AGAIN.-The colored stovedores feeling satisfied with their conduct were naturally feeling satisfied with their conduct were naturally disgusted with those base minds that would stoop to work at the old rates. Their anger waxing hot the more they debated the question, they finally made a foray on the different wharves vesterday and captured those who differed from them and foreibly prevented a further continuance of work. This warlike manœuvre will not improve their cause, and they will find that their high-handed measures will redound to their own disadvantage. The temporary inconvenience occasioned by this movement wil soon be obliterated, as the merchants and shipowners of Charleston are too energetic to allow it to interfere with their business, and are fully capable to resist all unjust demands.

NEW POLITICAL MOVEMENT.—Senator Harlan, Ex-Secretary of the Interior, has been sojourning in our city for the past few days, and left for Washington on Friday night. It is stated upon good authority that his visit here was for the purpose of obtaining information concerning the extent of the Union sentiment in the State, and to recommend the formation of a Union League and the organization of a Union party, the chief de upo of which shall be to aid in procuring a "Loyal" Government for the State. We learn that immediate action will be taken in the matter, and that a petition will shartly be circulated, the purport of which will be to secure to the State a government similar to that recommended for the State of North Carolina, which was presented by Thap. Stevens Ex-Secretary of the Interior, has been sojourning Carolina, which was presented by Than. Stevens in Congress. Tradition states that there was once a drain in that neighborhood, but it is only from the records of the Aborigines that we receive any authentic account of such an institution. WE EXTRACT from the Abbeville Banner, of last Wednesday, the following tribute to a gentleman well known in our community as a faithful and devoted minister, and kind and excellent friend. TESTIMOBIAL OF RESPECT TO REV. BENJ. JOHNSON.

At a meeting of the Vestry of Trinity Church, Abbeville, held on the 24th December, 1866, the following preamble and resolutions were unani-mously adopted: Whereas our esteemed Rector, the Rev. Benmously adopted:

Whereas our esteemed Rector, the Rev. Benjamin Johnson, has received a call to Milledgeville, Georgia, and he has deemed it his duty to accept this invitation to a larger field of usefulness; and whereas he has been with us for the last eleven years—eventful years in the history of our httle Church as in that of our country—faithfully and tenderly ministering to those around him in sickness and in health, in adversity as in prosperity, and amidst the horrors of war as well as in peace. ness and in health, in adversely as in peace, and amidst the horrors of war as well as in peace. Resolved That while we regret to lose our friend and brother, the Rev. Mr. Johnson, as our spiritual guide and rector, believing it to be a matter proper for his own decision as to where he can be most useful in his high vocation, we accept his resignation, and wish him and his family God speed among new friends and in a wider field of prefulness.

Resolved, That whilst we thus humbly acquiesce in this result, our hearts are not insensible to the rupture of many social ties and tonder memories growing out of kindly intercourse in the confidential relation of rector and parishioners, which has extended over a number of years—including periods of unusual misfortunes and so rows.

Resolved, That Mr. Johnson is entitled to our thanks for the Liclity and ability, perseverance and zeal, with which he has discharged his pastoral duties; and to our affectionate regard for the singular modesty and simplicity of his manners, and the purity and unselfishness of his life and character since he has been among us.

Resolved, That in the opinion of this Vestry, the interest of the Episcopal Church in Abbeville District has been greatly promoted by the exertions and example of Mr. Johnson—his Christian liberality refuting the allegation of exclusiveness, his modest simplicity correcting the opinion of mere formalism, and his catholic picty commanding the respect and winning the affection of Christians of all denominations.

Resolved, That this preamble and resolutions be entered upon the minutes of this Vestry, and that a copy be given to Mr. Johnson, and another forwarded to St. Stephen's Church, Milledgeville, Ga., as a simple testimonal from those with whom Mr. Johnson has labored in the past, to those among whom he is to labor in the future.

THE EPIPHANY OR TWELFTH DAY .- The 6th of January, or "Twelfth Day," is so called, being the twelfth from Christmas, and Epiphany from a Greek word signifying appearance. It has been from the earliest ages a fustival of the Church in memoration of the manifestation of Christ to the three Magi or wise men of the East. 'The Epiphany was first observed as a separate feast about the year $13, but the primitive Christians observed the Feasts of the Nativity and Epiphany as early as the fourth century.

To render due honor to the memory of the Magi in the middle agos, their worship was colebrated by a little drama called the "Feast of the Star." This was performed by the priests and their at-tondants in their different Churches, and was contendants in their different Churches, and was considered at that time an interesting and imposing spectacle. At Milan, in 1336, the "Festival of the Three Kings" was colebrated by the Preaching Friers in a manner peculiar to that age. The three kings appeared on three horses richly caparisoned, and surrounded by pages, body-guards, and other retinue. After parading through the principal streets they proceeded to the Church of St. Eustorgius, where in a manger was the infant Christ and his mother. Here the three kings offered their gifts. An immense concourse of the people, knights, ladies, and ecclesiastics, attended this ceremony.

christ and as mother. Here the the the control of the people, knights, ladies, and ecclesiastics, attended this ceremony.

In modern days, especially m England, 12th day stands only inforior to Christmas as a popular festival, but is celebrated in an entirely different style from the past. Among other annusements on that day was the 12th cake; this was a large cake formed with a bean inserted; the cake was divided by lot, and whoever obtained the piece containing the bean was accopted as the King of the day, and called the King of the Bean. Besides this, a number of jocularities, games and amusements are played; but the practice of observing the day is gradually becoming obsolete except in those countries which still preserve a fondness for old customs. Formerly, monarchs took a part in these games, and cases are on record where Mary, Queen of Scots, resigned her throne for the day to the more fortunate Queen of the Bean.

Down to the time of the Civil Wars of England, the feast was observed with great splendor, not only at Court, but at the universities and elsewhere. The Puritan element which then got the ascendancy, frowned so contemptuously on such profane amusements, that they have never been restored to popular favor to the same extent. It is now merely a Church Festival, and only observed by the Episcopal and Catholic Churches.

The period of Carnival (named as a farewell to flish) begins on Epiphany and ends on Ash Wednesday; this is observed in Roman Catholic countries, but particularly at Roma and Paris, as a time of merry-making and pleasure. In modern Rome, the masquerading in the treets and all out-door amusements are limited to eight days; in Paris the time is much shorter. The only places in this country where the Carnival is observed to any extent, are Canada and the city of New Orleans.

THE STATE NORMAL AND HIGH SCHOOL.—This noble institution was reopened last Wednesday for the reception of pupils, after a long but unavoidthe reception of pupils, after a long but unavoidable interruption. The Normal School, before the war, and during the years of its early progress, stood first in the State among the female institutions of learning, and many are the teachers that were fitted here for their responsible calling. Under the able and experienced guidance of Mr. Mood, the present principal, we have no hesitation in prophesying a brilliant future for the Normal School.

THE BINOPTRIO LANTERN AT TRINITY CHURCH .-These interesting exhibitions, which have been postponed for some time on account of the inclepostponed for some time on account of the inclement weather, will positively take place to-morrow afternoon at Trinity Church. When these view were exhibited in the College Chapel, they pleased and entertained andiences, and when it is known that the ultimate object of the present performance is charity, that and the small price of admission charged will attract many who still remember their past visit with delight.

REDUCTION OF WHARF RATES .- The attention of the business public is requested to the advertisement of Mr. E. C. HOLLAND, Agent for North and South Commercial Wharves, which appears in our South Commercial Wharves, which appears in our issue of to-day. It will be seen that a most important reduction has been made on the present charges for wharfage, and that the rate for Upland Cotton will be 25 cents per bale per month, instead of 50 cents, as at present; 40 cents per bale for Sea Island, instead of 75 cents; for Rice 24 cents per tierce per month, instead of 40 cents, and other charges to be in proportion.

This property consists of two fine piers extending into Cooper River, which have lately been placed in superior order, with convenient and well constructed warehouses, and every arrangement suitable for the transaction of a general wharfage and storage business.
